

Standard Provision & SEND Offer- Parental Guidance

National Academy SEND Offer

Where SEN support provision is not effective at meeting a student's needs, an EHC (Education, Health & Social Care) Plan might be applied for. An EHC is a statutory document stating the individual needs of a student and how these should be met. This is collated by all professionals working with the student across the three EHC domains. Any student who is SEN Support or has an EHC Plan may access one or more of the following:

- Referral to and liaison with the Educational Psychology Service
- Referral to and liaison with the Supporting Families Specialist Services (Cognition & Learning, Communication & Interaction and Sensory teams)
- Referral to and liaison with health professionals (e.g. Paediatrics, PDSS, CAMHS and Occupational Therapy) on matters relating to education in school
- Referral to and liaison with external social care professionals (e.g. Targeted Support, Social Worker) on matters relating to education in school
- Special Educational Needs Provision Map and Termly Reviews
- Bespoke Careers advice and guidance from Year 9
- Additional funding to meet identified educational needs in school (Subject to set funding criteria)

SEND Local Offer: Provided by the Local Authority

The local offer includes information on what is available for children and young people with special educational needs and disabilities, up to the age of 25. According to post code, parents and students with SEND can access the SEND Local Offer for Nottingham City and Nottinghamshire County Local Authorities. Links for these can be found on the National Academy website.

SEN Review Process:

Assess – Student’s needs are identified through assessment against given criteria.

Plan – A plan for meeting student needs is developed by the member of staff supporting the student with set targets to measure it against.

Do – The plan is carried out for a set period of time.

Review – The impact of the plan is reviewed against the set targets.

If the needs of the student are met and there is sufficient improvement in learning and/or skills the support will cease. Should difficulties continue then additional support from a higher Core level may be employed.

Standard Provision - Wave 2 Short Term Interventions

Where a student’s academic and/or social and emotional needs cannot be met through Wave 1 Provision, specific areas of need are identified and developed through planned short term intervention(s) over 6 weeks, delivered by qualified and trained members of staff. If an individual short-term wave 2(6 week programme) is ineffective at meeting the needs of the student, higher level support will be offered At this point, the student could be identified as needing Special Educational provision.

SEN Support- Individual Provision across the Academy

A student is considered SEN Support if they are experiencing learning difficulties and are more than 2 years behind expected progress. Any support or provision that is additional to and/or different from that which is given as part of the Standard Educational Provision will result in students being identified as SEN code K on the Code of Practice Register. This provision may also include one or more Wave 2 interventions that are delivered over a sustained period of time.

A student who is SEN Support will have a receive their SEN reviews through the bespoke intervention leader.

EHC- Educational Health Care Plan

- Request for an EHC Plan (Where current provision has not been effective over three SEN reviews)
- EHC Reviews (Students with an EHC Plan only)
