Exam board websites

- A lot of materials on the exam board websites can be accessed without having to use a login and password;
- You'll find many useful resources but in particular:
 - Exam past papers or sample papers;
 - Mark schemes with suggestions on what you should have included for each question;
 - Information on grade boundaries so you can work out what specifically what you need to achieve;
 - Some study guides for specific texts or subject areas.
- The main exam boards are AQA, OCR & Edexcel . If you're not sure which exam board to refer to, check with your teacher or Head of Faculty.
