The best revision methods involve being active.

Passively reading through notes and books is a very poor method of revision. It is very ineffective in helping students to understand or remember.

Active revision strategy 1: flashcards [£3 for 100 at Amazon]

- Make very specific but brief notes on one area;
- Allow room to add to the notes;
- Write the subject area clearly at the top;
- As you build up a collection, number or colour code them.
