Dear parents and guardians

Warm weather – Friday 17 June

The Met Office have predicted temperatures tomorrow of around 30°C for Hucknall. Therefore, on Friday, we have taken the decision to allow all National Academy students to attend school without their blazer or tie. Students may also have their top button undone, but will still be expected to look smart.

Our full uniform policy will apply again from Monday, as usual.

I strongly advise that you make sure your child brings water with them on Friday, and applies sunscreen at home before leaving for school.

Kindest regards

Mr M Brailsford
Headteacher
